

Journal of International Economic Law

Volume 9 Number 4 December 2006

ISSN 1369–3034

<http://www.jiel.oxfordjournals.org> email: jiel@law.georgetown.edu

CONTENTS

MINI-SYMPOSIUM: THE FUTURE GEOMETRY OF WTO LAW

Introduction	775
Thomas Cottier
From Progressive Liberalization to Progressive Regulation in WTO Law	779
Thomas Cottier
Rulemaking Amidst Growing Diversity: A Club-of-Clubs Approach to WTO Reform and New Issue Selection	823
Robert Z. Lawrence
The Consistency of WTO Rules: Can the Single Undertaking Be Squared with Variable Geometry?	837
Craig VanGrasstek and Pierre Sauvé
Services Negotiations in the Doha Round: Lost in Flexibility?	865
Rudolf Adlung

GENERAL ARTICLES

The Lack of Dissent in WTO Dispute Settlement	895
Meredith Kolsky Lewis
Completing the Analysis in WTO Appeals: The Practice and its Limitations	933
Alan Yanovich and Tania Voon
What Are Trade Agreements For? – Two Conflicting Stories Told by Economists, With a Lesson for Lawyers	951
Donald H. Regan
Giving Legal Effect to the Results of WTO Trade Negotiations: An Analysis of the Methods of Changing WTO Law	989
Hunter Nottage and Thomas Sebastian

BOOK REVIEWS

- Giorgio Sacerdoti, Alan Yanovich, and Jan Bohanes (eds),
The WTO at 10: The Contribution of the Dispute Settlement System 1017
Knirre Sogaard
- Federico Ortino and Ernst-Ulrich Petersmann (eds), *The WTO
Dispute Settlement System: 1995–2003* 1025
Giorgio Sacerdoti